PRECISION IN EVERY DETAIL

EST. 2014 — OEM & PRIVATE LABEL MANUFACTURING — MADE IN INDIA

Engineered for Perfection.

Since 2014, JOJO Papers has been quietly setting the standard for what a rolling paper and cone manufacturer can be. Not through shortcuts or mass-market compromise, but through an obsession with craft most of the industry has forgotten to hold onto.

Each cone is hand rolled by skilled women artisans who have refined their craft over years, using ultra-thin paper selected for a clean draw and a slow, even burn from first light to last. Nothing about that process is rushed, and nothing about it is accidental.

We work with brands and wholesale partners who understand that packaging a product is easy, but building one worth putting your name on is not. Through private label and OEM partnerships, we give partners access to a decade of manufacturing precision — from raw material sourcing to final finish — so the product that reaches their customers is one they can stand behind completely.

Colours & Finishes

Every JOJO paper starts from the same base: ultra-thin natural fiber, cut and folded for a clean draw and a slow, even burn from first light to last. Whichever finish you stock, the performance behind it is identical — so a shelf carrying five colours is still one consistent product to your customer, not five gambles.

For retail, that consistency is the point: colours and finishes can be mixed into a single counter display without a difference in draw or burn quality, and each one is available loaded into standard JOJO booklets or built into a fully custom pack for private label and OEM programs — same paper, your brand.
